Chaplain

Wascana Rehabilitation Centre One Year Term Position

The Archdiocese of Regina requires a full-time person to serve as Chaplain at Wascana Rehabilitation Centre.

Karen Ziegler, our current Chaplain will be retiring after 22 years of dedicated service to the Church and WRC clients, their families and the staff.

The position will initially be filled on a one-year position while we are waiting for more clarity about the new Sask. Health Authority spiritual care model support system.

A complete job description will be posted on our Archdiocesan website and will also be obtained by requesting one from bkowalchuk@archregina.sk.ca or mgurash@archregina.sk.ca

Due to the short turn-around time to fill the position, all applications must be received by March 30, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.

Applications should forward to the attention of Bob Kowalchuk, Director of Pastoral Services and should include the following:

- An expression of interest in the Chaplaincy position.
- A statement of relevant experience providing or volunteering in spiritual care,
- Training or courses specific to hospital chaplaincy
- Names of two- character references

Applicants should send either a letter of reference from their priest / parish administrator or member of the clergy with their contact information to verify their support for your application.

The individual who obtains the position must be able to obtain a Vulnerable Sector Search through their local police service.

Preference will be given to people who have completed the CPE courses or equivalent education in spiritual care.

We thank all applicants for their interest.

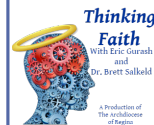

Bob Kowalchuk, Director of Pastoral services

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

"Pilate again said to them, 'Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?' And they cried out again, 'Crucify him.'" – Mark 15:12-13

Jesus told us "whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me." Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we have the opportunity to see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Pray for the strength and courage to stand up for those in need of our help.

TF79: Made For Greatness Men's Ministry with Kevin Philip

Wherein we discuss stealing pens and pinching faces, collectively confront our innate 'John Wayne-ness', and realize our call to greatness with guest Kevin Philip. Somewhere in the midst of all of this, we'll even take some time to talk about the new "Made for Greatness" men's ministry Kevin is involved with and tell you when and where you can check it out. If we've piqued your interest you can join the next event on Friday, April 6. For details on time and location head on over to their Facebook page

And It Pleased the Lord: A Rabbi and a Bishop Strike a Chord with Leonard Cohen

Archbishop Donald Bolen and Rabbi Jeremy Parnes are joined by Rev. Sarah Dymund (Trinity Lutheran) as they explore the spiritual questions in Leonard Cohen's work. What are the key themes that connect Cohen's songs? How does Cohen root his reflections on human experience in the spiritual sources of Judaism and Christianity? Join the discussion at 6pm on Friday, April 20 at Living Spirit Centre (3018 Doan Dr., Regina). All are welcome to this free event that kicks off "A Taste of Skylight", http://bit.ly/TasteofSkylight! For more information, contact Nick Jesson at 306-352-1651, ext. 220 or email jesson@ecumenism.net. This is the fourth in a series of discussions about the work of Leonard Cohen. The previous evenings are available on YouTube at https://www.youtube.com/playlist?list=PLi4wV-CaUiiR4DF_-Kri0Nt1NI-HVl-ytK

HOLD THE DATE: Public workshop on Eucharistic Agreement - April 27 & 28

One of the least known achievements of the ecumenical movement is the consensus on the doctrine of the Eucharist. Join the dialogue with Rev. Claude Schroeder and Dr. Brett Salkeld on Friday evening, April 27 as they explore the Anglican-Roman Catholic agreements. Then, on Saturday, April 28 we will break open the bilateral agreements as well as the World Council of Churches' seminal text Baptism, Eucharist, and Ministry. What is the significance of the agreements reached? What does this mean for interchurch families and ecumenical shared ministries? Further details to follow. Contact Nick Jesson, 306-352-1651, ext. 220 or email jesson@ecumenism.net.

In Appreciation
